

JIM SHORE

2019 Appearances

Though Jim lives and creates in South Carolina, he loves to hit the road and meet friends at signing events. His annual tour brings him to cities across the country. See when he will be arriving near you or contact one of the stores hosting an event to order a signed piece that can be shipped to you. Plus, there are several opportunities throughout the year to see Jim and hear about his inspiration for new releases online. Check the events below to see where he will be appearing next!
